

Implications of Trump's Move of US Embassy to Jerusalem

Rallies all over the United States and around the world are taking place to object to the announcement by President Donald Trump that the US embassy in Israel would be moved to Jerusalem. The Palestinians and the international community have considered East Jerusalem to be the capital of Palestine. The move by Trump, should be of no surprise to any sincere observer because the United States has never been an honest peace broker to the Israel/Palestine conflict. Members of We Hold These Truths joined with over 100 Palestinian supporters in Tempe, Arizona to protest the action by President Trump. This video is a two minute overview of the rally.

In this podcast, Chuck Carlson, Craig Hanson and Tom Compton of We Hold These Truths discuss the implications of the announcement by President Donald Trump to move the US embassy to Israel to Jerusalem. Could Trump's proclamation lead us into war? Christian Zionists are ecstatic over Trump's move. Be sure to watch our two minute video, "Palestine Will Be Free," before listening to this 19 minute. podcast. Also, you will want to read the article mentioned by Chuck in this podcast: "Financial Times Weighs In On Israel's Occupation of Jerusalem."